Word Sought on TouristsWASHINGTON, Oct. 11 (AP)

The United States Embassy in Moscow is pressing the Soviet Foreign Ministry for information on two American tourists missing since mid-August, the State Department said today.

Francis W. Tully, Jr., a press officer, reported that no word had been received on what had happened to Harvey C. Bennett of Bath, Maine, and Mark Kaminsky of Edwarsburg, Mich.

A few days ago the State Department reported that another American had seen Mr. Kaminsky briefly in the town of Uzhgorod in August. Mr. Kaminsky was reported to have said that he was being detained by Soviet authorities for having taken photographs.
